Board of Mayor and Aldermen. The Board had several matters of of which were the public schools, with the epidemic of 1873: the projected water-works and the health of the city. All these matters received careful attention and were put in train to be attended to in a business-like way. The first question was the public schools. Mr. Polk G. Johnson, from the School Building Commissioners, accompanied by A. Howell, Esq., and Dr. Wright, from the Board of School Directors, attended for the purpose of presenting before the Board the necessities of the schools for building accommodationand laying before them a plan by which the new buildings can be put up at once. Mr. Johnson stated Announcement of marriages and deaths that the obstacle to immediate achands of the Building Board consist of railroad bonds and other securites which cannot at present be disposed of except at a great sacrifice; but certain individuals had offered to advance the necessary funds as they are needed on these bonds as collateral security. He was there, he said, to procure the sanction of the City Board to this transaction, with the understanding that the corporation should incur no pecuniary liability by such sanction. He expressed his belief that the schools could in this way be put up and roofed in before the end of the The Epidemic. year, and completed next spring. Whereas, The city of Memphis is now suffering under the shadow of the wings of the Angel of Death, to an extent never before known, involving not only a fearful loss of life from the prevailing fever, but also a total suspension of business, loss of employment to the laboring classes, both white and black, and absolute deprivation of the necessaries of life, rendering thousands destitute of money, meat, bread and medicines, and threatening the people remaining in Memphis, as well as those who have been removed to camps, with death from starvation, therefore,

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Memphis now in Clarksville, do earnestly appeal to the good people of Montgomery, Robertson, Stewart and Houston counities, Tennessee, and to the people of Southern Kentucky, to come forward, and of their abundance, give food to our starving fellow citizens, upon the faith of that promise which is, "Whosoever giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

Tribute of Respect to J. B. Tinsley,

At a meeting of visitors attending the Sweet Chalybeate Springs, held on the 12th day of August, 1878, the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Read, of Richmond, was called to the chair. The object of the meeting was stated by the Chalrman in a few touching and appropriate temarks.

This land lies in Christian county, Ky., on the State Line road, and is a part of the farm on which the late Maj. John Poindexter resided. There is a large, new tobacco barn on the tract, also a good stock pond. About one-half is cleared, and all very rich.

 Resolved, That the members of this meeting have heard with deep emotion and grief of the sudden and unexpected death of J. B. Tinsley, Jr., the proprietor of the Swee Chalybeate Springs—an event which has just east its shadow over this beautiful sum mer resort; and in the presence of such bereavement they desire to express thei heartfelt sorrow over the dead and sympath with the living, and to make known thei heartfeit sorrow over the dead and sympathy with the living, and to make known their grateful appreciation, so far as they have had the opportunity of knowing him, of the uniform courtesy, kindly attentiveness, and gentlemanly bearing of the deceased in his intercourse with his guests, and in his care for their comfort and pleasant accommodation. He was a true gentleman, and none knew him but to find and admire in him many of those attributes of character which endear a man to his fellows, and the memory of which brings tears to their eyes when he is removed from thir midst.

2. That we learn with pleasure that arrangements have been made to continue the management of the establishment to the close of the season; that all engagements with guests now here, as well as those to arrive will be faithfully carried out; and that due efforts will be made not only to maintain, but, as far as may be, to increase the ample and very acceptable provision heretofore made for the comfort, health and pleasure of guests.

3. That though many of us are personally strangers to the family of the deceased, we cannot forbear saying that we truly sympathize with them in their unspeakable grief; and we commend them to the loving care of Him who, we pray, may be found by them to be light in their darkness and iov even in to be light in their darkness and joy even in their greatest sorrow!

Public Auction. Monday, September 23, 1878,

I WILL SELL AT

ON THE PUBLIC SQUARE IN CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE

The following very valuable tracts of land, lying in Montgomery county, Tennessee, and Christian county, Kentucky, belonging to the estate of W. R. Poindexter, deceased. A tract of land lying in district No. Montgomery county Tennessee, on the Stat Line road, containing 202 ACRES AND 49 POLES Adjoining the lands of the late Major John Poindexter's estate, and known as the Blane place, the same purchased by W. R. Poindexter of J. D. Kendrick in 1875. There are on this tract a good dwelling, good barn and other out-houses, and a stock pond near the stables. A large spring branch runs through the farm.

A tract of land in district No. 4, Montgom ery county, Tennessee, containing 100 7-8 ACRES, Lying between the lands of James Fletcher and J. W. Smith, being No. 1 of the division of the lands of the late Nathan Hester, Sr. and the same bought by the late Nathan Hester, Jr.

The lands allotted to W. R. Poindexter by the commissioners appointed to divide the real estate of his father, the late Maj. Joh Poindexter, viz: A tract containing

SIXTY ACRES,

In Christian county, Kentucky, on the State Line road, being lot No. 7 of the division ad-joining the lands of Ike Bennett and P. B. Poindexter's heirs of the same division. About one-half of this tract is cleared. A tract, all wood land, containing

33 AND 1-4 ACRES,

ying in Tennessee, adjoining the place, and bordering on a creek, which sep-arates it from Mabry's lands. These two tracts are a part of the farm on which the late Maj. John Poindexter resided, situated near Garrettsburg, Ky., and known to be one of the best farms in Christian county.

A tract containing 123 AND 1-2 ACRES, Lying in Montgomery county, Tennessee, near Woodlawn, on the road leading from Clarksville to Dover, about ten miles from the former place; a part of a tract of 623 acres, known as the late Maj. John Poindex-ter's Woodchuck place.
